Re: Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BLMIS") Bankr. S.D.N.Y., No. 08-1789 (BRL)

Dear Mr. Gross:

The Trustee has referred to me your most recent letter dated January 11, 2013.

We have revisited the books and records of BLMIS which indicate that your account, 1CM404, was opened on June 24, 1996. If you are in possession of information evidencing a BLMIS account prior to this date, please send it to us at your convenience.

We have no information pertaining to an account you may have had with Cohmad. Irving Picard, is the Trustee only for the substantively consolidated liquidation of BLMIS and the estate of Bernard L. Madoff ("Madoff") (collectively, "Debtor") under the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA") and not for Cohmad. If you have questions about an account with Cohmad, you should take them up directly with representatives of that entity.

Sincerely,

Bill Cheema

Upon consideration of the Motion for Enforcement of the Automatic Stay and Issuance of a Preliminary Injunction (the "Motion") in the above-captioned adversary proceeding by Irving H. Picard, trustee for the substantively consolidated liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa-fff and the estate of Bernard L. Very truly yours,

Please call this office if you have any questions.

The claimant in this case has filed a claim against Maurice Jay Cohn. FINRA's records show that this party's registration status with FINRA is terminated. The claimant should be aware that arbitration awards against barred, revoked, suspended or terminated individuals have a much higher incidence of non-payment than those associated with active persons who fail to satisfy arbitration awards. FINRA has only limited disciplinary authority over inactive associated persons. FINRA has only limited disciplinary authority over inactive associated persons who fail to satisfy arbitration awards. We are advising you of FINRA's limited jurisdiction over former associated persons so that the claimant may decide how to proceed against these parties.

SEC Alleges Employees of Feeder Fund Funneled "Billions of Dollars" to Madoff

A Bernard Madoff feeder fund and three of its employees were charged with securities fraud by the Securities and Exchange Commission on Monday. The SEC alleges they acted as a "stealth sales force" and "knowingly or recklessly" participated in the fund scheme by funneling billions of dollars to Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities Corporation LLC.

Cohmad and three of its employees, Maurice Cohn, Marcia Cohn and Robert Jaffe, were "instrumental to the success of Madoff's scheme" for more than 20 years, according to documents filed in the United States District Court in the Southern District of New York.

The SEC alleges the defendants specifically recruited "affluent but financially unsophisticated investors."

"Madoff communicated to the Defendants that he would not accept investments from anyone who worked in the finance or banking industry. Madoff communicated his concern to Cohmad and the Cohns that sophisticated investors would ask 'too many questions,'" according to the civil complaint.

The three defendants were paid an excess of $100 million in fees for recruiting investors who accounted for more than 800 accounts at Madoff's investment advisory business.

The complaint alleges that Robert Jaffe was paid directly through his personal account at Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities and received "outsized" returns of up to 46% despite the fact that the clients he referred received returns of 12% to 18%.

Jaffe withdrew at least $150 million from his accounts between 1996 and 2008 and "made specific request to BMIS seeking a specific dollar amount of gains for a given period," according to the SEC.

"The complaint filed today by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which we learned about only from the press, smacks of impulsiveness and efforts at self-justification. It is unfair, baseless in the law, and is inaccurate in its understanding of the facts and of Mr. Jaffe," Jaffe's lawyer said in a statement.

Lawyers for the Maurice and Marcia Cohn did not return calls for comment.
